

BROOKS WEAKENS AFTER FINE START

Yields Only One Hit Up to Seventh, Then Goes to Pieces.
Roanoke Wins.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., April 20.—After retiring eighteen of the first nineteen men to face him, and yielding only one single up to the seventh, Brooks weakened, and Roanoke hammered him from the slab in the seventh, and seven runs crossed the plate before Hogue, who relieved Brooks, could stop the hitting. The Roanoke team defeating Lynchburg 7 to 1 in the opening game of the season.

Cefalu, who pitched for the visitors, was hit rather freely in the second and fourth innings, but after that he was invincible, for he yielded only one single after the fourth.

The Tigers went down in order in the first five innings, and four men faced Brooks in the sixth. In the seventh, three singles, followed by a sacrifice, Lucia's error at the plate, and another single, resulted in four runs. Hogue then went to the slab, and with the bases full, forced a run by walking Wilkinson. With the bases full, Garden, in his second time up in the session, doubled, scoring two runs. Hogue then settled down, and there was no more scoring.

The opening was marred by cold, damp, cloudy weather, which was typical of November. The score:

JOCKEY McCABE RIDER OF THREE DAY'S WINNERS

High Private Takes Nansemond Purse—Trainer Coles Suspended.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., April 20.—High Private, C. C. Smithson's maddler, who started all the subsequent troubles of his now outworn owner by winning a suspected victory from Live Wire at the Jamestown track early in this meet, won again to-day, and this, too, with Live Wire in the running. But High Private won handily to-day.

With a heavy track, there were many scratches again to-day. Jockey McCabe proved to be the real thing in riding, however, carrying three of his mounts home in front—Ben Loumad, Agnar and Walter Scott. Agnar won handily, but Walter Scott just beat Firewood by a head. Tee May stepped into a hole in this race and fell, throwing Willie Dunn, who was not hurt other than by a mud bath.

Theodore Coles, trainer for C. C. Smithson, outwaded by the stewards from the jockey tracks because of the suspected hold-up of Besom, when about to win a race that went to Sting or Tuesday, was to-day arrested and put under bond upon the charge of kicking Dick Stiffel, a steeplechase rider, in the face. The stewards have suspended Trainer Coles, pending investigation and trial in the Criminal Court of Norfolk county.

William Walker has bought Mackenzie's Michael Angelo for $1,000, and his other horses will be sold after the Pinhook meeting.

The weather to-day was cold and gloomy. Track heavy. Summaries:

BRILLIANT WORK IN NORFOLK GAME

Tars Easily Win Opening Contest From Petersburg by 12 to 6 Score.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., April 20.—Eleven hundred fans braved the chilly blasts that swept across Athletic Park this afternoon to witness the opening game of the 1911 season of the Virginia League, with the Norfolk Tars with Skipper Babb on deck, and the Petersburg Gooberties, with the little Dutchman, Holme Busch, as their head, Norfolk easily won the game by the score of 12 to 6. Babb and Spencer parked the ball.

In the face of the unfavorable weather, with the diamond and outfield a little doubtful, owing to the heavy rains of the preceding night, the showing of both teams was excellent, as indicated by the error columns, and only the wilderness of Petersburg's pitchers caused the visitors to go down in defeat by such a one-sided score.

Not only was the game well played, but punctured by brilliant work at times. The exceptional fast work of Pagel in right field probably serves to be labeled the classy offering of the day. The score:
